

Local Bank Robbed, Suspect Flees Scene

On November 14, 2016 at 11:53 a.m., Longview Police were dispatched to a Bank Robbery Just Occurred in the 200 Block of North Fredonia Street (Citizens National Bank). When officers arrived they were told that a suspect, believed to be a Hispanic male with facial hair, came into the bank and demanded money. He was wearing a dark colored shirt, jeans, white t-shirt, and yellow hard hat. The suspect then fled the location before Police arrived. At this time Police do not believe the suspect had a weapon. No victims were harmed during the robbery.

If anyone has information on the identity of the robbery suspect they are asked to contact Longview Police at 903-237-1170 or Gregg County Crimestoppers at 903-236-7867.

